POETRY.

PERSEVERE.

Spite of failure, spite of danger,
Persevere.
To all doubts and fears a stranger,
Persevere.
When a noble course beginning,
Doubting, wavering, is but stinging,
If success you would be winning,
Persevere.

Though ignoble tongues assail you,
Persevere.
Let your courage never fail you—
Persevere.
Bright the future flows toward you,
Your own deeds will yet reward you,
Let no hate nor fear retard you—
Persevere.

DOES HE DRINK?—When riding in Central Park, New York, not long ago, two gentlemen were thrown from a carriage, and one of them, a distinguished politician, was killed.

A sensible, sympathizing lady, on hearing of the unfortunate event, instantly enquired, "Had he been drinking?"

Yes, verily, they had been "drinking and winning." They were imprudent enough to attempt, when in a state of inebriation, to drive a span of spirited horses. The wonder is that both men and horses had not been killed.

"Does he drink?" Then, no matter what accident happens, nobody is surprised. He is expected to come to some bad end. Accidents are, nine times in ten, the result of drink.

The man was tired and sleepy; he took a glass, and was run over by a railroad train, or he lost his money, his coat, his boots or his life.

"He was a promising boy, but like his father, he took to drink and was ruined." "He graduated at the head of his class, was an excellent scholar, but in an evil hour he gave way to his evil appetite and is now a public pauper."

"Charles was a handsome fellow, and popular with all the ladies and ladies; but—Ah! that fatal bug—drink sent him to an untimely grave, and the heads of his bereaved parents with unutterable sorrow for his heartless conduct and impudent folly and sin."

Reader, cast about for a moment, and in your own experience recount the human wrecks which lie stranded on the coast of time! There was handsome William, stately Henry, plucky John, benevolent Jonathan, magnanimous James, noble Abraham, wise Daniel, the kindly Oliver, and others, cut off prematurely by drink. O God, save us from this destroyer. Frequent accidents must inevitably happen to all who drink alcoholic stimulants. Misfortune will swiftly follow in the track of dissipation. Calamity awaits the transgressors. "God is not mocked." Little sins of body and mind grow daily, as the weed, and if not checked, in time will choke down the better plant and prevent its maturing. Young man do you drink?

Ships are lost at sea; steamboats collide on river or lake, or are blown up; horses are killed or crippled; carriages smashed; railway trains thrown off the track; public buildings or private dwellings are burned, and the lives of thousands are sacrificed and jeopardized. Why? By what? Because men give way to perversity and indulge in that which is an enemy, and only an enemy to their bodies and souls. Young man, do you drink?—A. P. Johnson.

BEING KNOCKED ABOUT.—It is a good thing for a young man to be "knocked about in the world," though his soft-hearted parents may not think so. All youths, or if not all, certainly nineteen out of twenty, enter life with a surplusage of self-conceit. The sooner they are relieved of it the better. If, in measuring themselves with wiser and older men, they discover it is unwarranted and get rid of it gracefully of their own accord, well and good; if not it is desirable for their own sakes, that it be "knocked out of them." A boy who is sent to a high school soon finds his level. His will may have been paramount at home; but school boys are democratic in their ideas, and if arrogant, he is sure to be thrashed into a recognition of the golden rule. The world is a public school, and it soon teaches new pupils his place. If he has the attributes that belong to a leader, he will be installed in the position of a leader; if not, whatever his opinion of his abilities may be, he will be compelled to fall in with the rank and file. If not destined to greatness, the next best thing to which he can aspire is respectability; but no man can be truly good or respectable who is vain and overbearing. By the time this notice has found his legitimate social position, be it high or low, the probability is that the disagreeable traits of his character will be softened or worn away. Most likely the process of abrasion will be rough, but when it is over he begins to see himself as others see him, and not as reflected in the mirror of self-conceit, and he will be thankful that he has run the gauntlet and arrived, though by a rough road, at self-knowledge. Upon the whole, whatever loving mothers may think to the contrary, it is a good thing for youths to be knocked about in the world—it makes men of them.

A powerful cotton press is to be erected in Nashville, Tennessee, by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company. It will reduce a bale of cotton 13 inches in thickness with wonderful rapidity. The cost of the machine is thirty thousand dollars.

The Administration is strongly urged, from many quarters, to recognize the independence of Cuba. It ought, probably, to do so, but first let it recognize the independence of the South. This is the matter that most deeply concerns our country now.—Prentice.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
MANUFACTURER AND VENDOR OF THE

Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup!

AGUE AND FEVER,

OR CHILLS AND FEVER.

THE proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for its superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the cure of ague, fever, and chills, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and South Western country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure. If the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is however prudent, and in every case more certain to cure the use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the medicine, a single dose of Bull's Vegetable Family Pills will be sufficient.

BULL'S
WORM DESTROYER,

To my United States and World-

Wide Readers.

I HAVE received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VILLAGE, WALKER COUNTY, GA.
June 25, 1866

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: I have recently given you "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors, that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary they are ineffectual in the extreme. My object in writing you, is to find out upon what basis I can get the medicine directly from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line of M. D.'s, but I do not justly cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity, which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one may imagine that myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the market, that are used to cure all manner of diseases, which human flesh is heir to. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms.

I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

Read the Captain's Letter and the Letters from his mother:

Benton Barracks, Mo., April 20, 1866.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded about two years ago—was taken prisoner & confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not sat up a moment since I was wounded. I am not through the hips. My general health is ruined, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in any thing else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON,

St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 20, 1865, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Capt. Johnson.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in central New York, where he died leaving the above C. P. Johnson, with no care. As thirteen years of age he had chronic diarrhea and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. In 1849, when I have for ten years recommended it to my New York, Ohio, and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores, and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. His fearful getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover. Respectfully,

JENNIE JOHNSON.

BULL'S

CEDRON BITTERS.

Arkansas heard from.

Testimony of Medical Men.

Stone Point, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1866.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall—especially your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care of Rickett & Neely.

Respectfully,

C. B. WALKER.

Fleishel & Bro., Wholesale dealers in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Clothing, &c. Atlanta, Ga. These gentlemen, who were formerly engaged in the mercantile business in this place, have now a very extensive establishment in Atlanta, Ga., and although they are constantly selling an immense quantity of goods, they manage to keep constantly on hand, by their admirable business arrangements, a very heavy stock of every variety of seasonable and fashionable goods, which they sell at remarkably low prices. Dealers in this section will find it to their interest to give them a call, and examine the quality and learn the prices of their goods.

Silvey & Dougherty, Wholesale dealers in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Hosiery, &c. Atlanta, Ga. These gentlemen, and experienced business men have a very extensive establishment, kept constantly full of seasonable goods of the best quality and in great variety, in fact surpassed by few if any in the Southern States. The large capital employed by them, in their admirable business arrangements, enables them to offer as good bargains to country merchants as they can obtain in New York or Philadelphia. For particulars of locality see advertisement in another column.

Rome Advertisements.
We have only room this week to call special attention to new advertisements of business men in Rome—Messrs. Berres & Co., W. D. Hoyt & Co., C. W. Mills, and Henry A. Smith.

The advertisement of the "German Tanning Co.," whose extensive establishment is located two miles north of this place, may be found in this paper. This enterprising company have already expended about $20,000, and improvements are still in progress. Theirs is the most important manufacturing enterprise yet projected in our County, and has been a great advantage in circulating money, and giving employment to many who might otherwise have been idle. They have in their employment the best Tanners in the South, as has been proven by several descriptions of their leather taking the premium at the Fairs of Rome, Selma, Montgomery and Macon. We are glad to learn that their investment is a profitable one, and that they have orders for leather faster than they can furnish.

Their stock is kept constantly full, and from the large capital employed, we have no doubt they can sell goods to, and fill orders from Merchants in this section, upon terms as favorable if not more so, than they can obtain them in the Atlantic cities. Such has been the experience of some persons who have purchased from them on their return.

Mr. W. W. DRAPEL, formerly engaged in mercantile business in this place with J. & J. B. Force, and afterwards in Oxford in this County, may be found by his numerous friends and acquaintances, in this house.

We learn from Dr. J. L. Burke, recently arrived from Huntsville, that the U. S. District Court, Hon'ble Busted presiding, after a session of 20 days, adjourned on Saturday the 4th inst. The Judge, having participated in the hospitalities of the Huntsville Bar, at a splendid entertainment given him at the Huntsville Hotel on Saturday night, left the city on Monday noon, accompanied by U. S. Dist. Attorney Southworth, for Montgomery, Alabama. There will be no regular session of the District Court held in this city. Judge Busted will open court in Mobile on the 13th, and pass through Montgomery and remain a few days for the discharge of Bankrupts.

See advertisement of sale of valuable Land and Lots, by Administrators of John M. Crook, deceased, and Joseph Gladden, deceased.

These are about the most valuable and desirable Lands in the country, and such an opportunity is seldom offered.

Here are a few pithy sentences which are truly suggestive: Sorrow's best antidote is employment. Beauty devoid of grace is like a hook without a bait. Confine your expenses, or they will confine you. He that falls in love with himself will have no rivals. If you cannot do as well as you wish do as well as you can. Promises made in the time of affliction require a better memory than people commonly possess. When you hear a man say life but a dream, tread on his corns and wake him up. Life is real. Be dead to the quarrelsome, blind to the scornful and dumb to those who are mischievously inquisitive.

HINDS VS. SHERROD.—Yesterday, Hinds began, before Judge Busted, to take testimony of his witnesses (about 40 we learn) to establish his claim to a seat in Congress over Sherrod, the successful Democratic candidate. Hinds' counsel were Gen. J. W. Burke and the new District Attorney, Southworth, and Sherrod by Gen. L. P. Walker. Four white witnesses were examined and they knew nothing material. The fifth witness was a negro, named—Orr. Under Gen. Walker's searching cross-examination, he showed so conclusively that he was lying, that Judge Busted discharged him, and Hinds, forthwith, abandoned the contest. So Sherrod will take his seat non com., we presume.—Huntsville Democrat.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Washington, Dec. 5.—A quorum of both Houses of Congress is present. Virgilians here say that hopes of an early admission of the State are strengthening.

FROM RICHMOND.
Richmond, Dec. 5.—Charles H. Rogers, a traveling collector, was murdered and robbed, this morning on a road four miles from the city. He had been shot dead in his buggy, and his body dragged to a thicket and rifled.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Washington, Dec. 4.—A vigorous fight is pending over private claims, the contestants holding that a repudiation of these gives a cue to the repudiation of the whole debt.

It is reiterated upon the very best authority that the Circuit Judge of the 5th district has never been officially tendered his position. He has therefore never resigned the position.

The credentials of the Virginia Senators were presented a petition asking the recognition of Cuba, and spoke strongly in its favor.

Drake's bill restraining the Federal courts was presented.

CONGRESSIONAL.
In the Senate, Mr. Morton introduced a bill to reconstruct Georgia.

In the House, Buckley and Mr. Buell [?] of Alabama, and Mr. Cox, of New York, were admitted. Messrs. Herrod and Dox approached the bar, but were objected to.

The House took a recess till half-past one o'clock.

The President recommends the prompt admission of Senators and Representatives from Virginia; hopes the results Mississippi and Texas have been such to meet the approval of Congress; suggests the renewal of the tax on incomes, at a reduced rate, say three per cent, the tax to expire in three years; suggests immediate resumption of specie payments is not desirable, though it should be reached at the earliest possible moment consistent with a fair regard for the debtor.

He recommends such legislation as will secure a gradual return to specie payments, and the fluctuation in the value of money. To end fluctuations in the value of money, he recommends authority to Treasury to redeem its own paper at a price whenever presented, and to hold from circulation all currency so redeemed until sold again for gold; that national resources, developed and undeveloped, should make our credit the best in the world, and the debt could be paid in years, but it is not desirable that people should be taxed to pay it in time.

The message says this, as a United States is the first of all nations, so its people sympathize with all people struggling for liberty and self-government while sympathizing it is due to its honor that we should refrain from making our views upon unwilling nations and from taking an interested part in the quarrels between governments, or between governments and their subjects.

Our course should conform with strict justice and national and local law. Such has been the policy of the administration in dealing with the question of Cuba. It says notwithstanding the war, it is time assumed the conditions which recognize the existence of a detached organization of the insurgents, and to justify a recognition of belligerence. The principle is maintained, never, that this nation is its own judge to award the rights of belligerence to a people struggling to free themselves from a government they believe to be tyrannical and to independent action with each other. The United States has no disposition to interfere with the relations of Spain to her colonial nations.

REMARKS OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE.
A larger amount of money has been raised by the tax on incomes, and the Government would be able to meet the income tax, the most tax ever laid in this country, and take a handsome profit by the change. It is better for all that it be done. Better for all that it be done. Yes, better in the end for the bondholders no less than for the income-taxpayers.

HORSE DRIVING.—Horses of great value have been commandeered from the market. In 1865, a bay colt, named "Atterbury," sold for $75,000, the same as a year-old colt by Benjamin, a year-old by Volunteer, and a three-year-old by Sir Peter, were sold for $40,000. For the celebrated horse named "Atterbury," a year-old colt, sold for $100,000, and a year-old by Volunteer, and a three-year-old by Sir Peter, were sold for $40,000. For the celebrated horse named "Atterbury," a year-old colt, sold for $100,000, and a year-old by Volunteer, and a three-year-old by Sir Peter, were sold for $40,000.

The white people, hearing of these proceedings, gathered to the number of about forty, and went in last to his residence, before the sentence of the League Court should be executed. They arrived in time, and were fired on by the negroes, and two slightly wounded. Thereupon, the whites charged the black savages, killing one, severely wounding five others, and completely dispersing the band.

A vague rumor has reached the city, that twenty of the ruffians had been arrested, and the whites were day before yesterday afternoon preparing to hang them all upon the same pole.

Congress and Reconstruction.

By the latest telegraphic dispatches, we learn that Congress is about to admit Virginia into the Union, she having complied with every requirement, and her leading men made every promise of future good behavior required of them. But then, to make all things even, they are about to turn Georgia out, under circumstances of outrage, unparalleled. This reconstruction business has cost the nation hundreds of millions, and is apparently no nearer consummation than it was years ago.

Our State Legislature has been in session 30 days, and only eight bills passed and presented to the Governor for his signature—nearly all the time having been consumed in wrangling, and successful and unsuccessful efforts to turn out democratic members. It adjourned on the 15th inst. to meet again on 10th January.

Jacksonville Hotel Reopened.

It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of Mr. J. D. Hammond, that he has reopened this popular commodious and well arranged Hotel. He has refitted and furnished it in a style well calculated for the comfort and accommodation of transient and permanent boarders. Mr. Hammond is a worthy, competent, polite and courteous gentleman, with considerable experience in the business, and we doubt not will give entire satisfaction, and make this house more than ever popular with its patrons.

BERRY'S & CO., Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, Rome, Ga. —We published the advertisement of these energetic, correct and experienced business men in our last paper, and need only say now to their numerous friends and patrons in this section, that they are still driving ahead with their extensive business, at their old and conveniently located situation near the depot. They have heavier stocks than heretofore, kept constantly full, and increased facilities for the transaction of every description of Commission business. Orders forwarded to them will be promptly and correctly filled; and we heartily commend them to the confidence and patronage of all who are not already acquainted with them.

HOMICIDE.—We learn that on Saturday last, about dark, D B Moore, was killed at Cross Plains, by J. J. Thompson, who beat him to death with a club. It is represented as a foul, cold-blooded murder. The relatives of Moore are unable to offer a large reward; but we hope the Governor, on proper representation, will promptly offer a suitable reward for the apprehension of the murderer.

HENRY A. SMITH.—To the literary man, Henry A. Smith offers every book calculated to please the fancy, or feed the intellect. To the musician, he tender the LATEST and most delightful music. To the giver of Christmas presents, he holds out the finest and best assortment of stock to select from. His Stationery is as varied as his stock is large. In short, his establishment is one without a rival this side of our largest cities.

W. D. HOYT & CO.—We promised last week that we would mention more particularly this magnificent Establishment, in our next. While in Rome we were shown through the entire house by one of the gentlemanly proprietors, and confess that we were astonished at the magnitude and excellence of their stock. The mere fact that the trade of this house extends from Rome beyond Gadsden, on the River, and to Talladega on our Road, is its best certificate. What more need we say?

C. W. MILLS.—To all young house-keepers and those contemplating matrimony and even those old couples whose furniture has worn and grown antiquated, we cannot too highly recommend this excellent Furniture Store. We were shown entirely through the establishment and a more complete display of every variety of furniture from the most ordinary to the most magnificent, from the most ornamental to the most useful, we have never seen. Our R. R. connection makes it easy to order from them, and we commend them.

WE would call the attention of our worthy Town Council to the fact of increasing disorder in our Town, especially of nights on the part of both whites and blacks. On Tuesday night, one negro man chased another along main street, firing some 5 or 6 pistol shots, one only wounding in the thumb, but evidently endangering the lives of chance passers in the street. Since then pistol firing has been kept up every night.

If the Marshal unaided is not able to put a check to these things, the Council should devise means to assist him, in which they would be sustained by all good citizens. Perhaps while checking disorder they might ferret out some of the garden robbers who have committed numerous depredations of late.

Christmas week, unless some restraint is imposed, will greatly increase these disorders and outrages. We do not object to a cheerful, festive Christmas, but earnestly protest against so many making it the excuse and occasion for drunkenness, profanity and roldism, which is a disgrace to civilization.

The churches of the Ten Islands association, East of the Coosa river will please call at the Republican office for their minutes of 1869, and those churches on the west side of the river will please call at the office of the Hon. John W. Inzer, Asheville, for theirs. CLERK.

Cathoun College.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of Cathoun College, held in this place on Wednesday last, the following gentlemen were elected Trustees for one year.

Hon. T. A. WALKER,
Col. S. FOUCHE,
J. H. CALDWELL,
Genl W. H. FORNEY,
J. W. BURKE,
Mr. E. L. WOODWARD,
H. A. STOLLENWERBK,
G. B. DOUTHITT,
P. ROWAN.

We suppose the Trustees will promptly proceed to locate and put under contract the College building in contemplation.

By reference to the advertisement of W. J. Wills, Esq., it will be seen that a large body of valuable Land will be offered for sale to the highest bidder on the 8th of next month.

Also on the 10th two valuable Houses and Lots in Jacksonville will be sold.

In order to give the printers of the Republican, as well as others, some opportunity for rest and recreation during Christmas week, we shall only issue half a sheet next week, containing the legal advertisements. It is now the almost universal custom of the newspaper press to issue no paper for Christmas week, and we are therefore confident that our patrons will excuse our half sheet.

Enlargement of the Republican.

So soon as we can use or dispose of our present lot of paper, we intend to enlarge the Republican four columns, making it a 32 column paper, equal in size, with two or three exceptions, to any paper in the State. We have made arrangements whereby we can add greatly to its interest and value.

Inasmuch as this increase in size, (without increase of price,) will involve considerable additional expense, we earnestly request those of our patrons who are in arrears one or more years, to assist us at their earliest convenience.

We invite the special attention of the afflicted to the advertisement of Dr. J. A. Clifton, who gives notice that he will visit this and other localities on specified days.

By making those diseases his special study and practice Dr. C. has become celebrated for his success during a long experience. In a printed pamphlet circular, hundreds in this and other States testify to having been thoroughly cured by him; and some in this immediate vicinity, can witness to the same fact. The opportunity ought to be embraced by all who need the exercise of his skill.

If you want to a nice Christmas Cris Cingle Candy—prize in every box—price 25 cts.

See various notices of new, fashionable and cheap Goods at Rosenbergs. These gentlemen have thus far given very general satisfaction to their patrons.

We tender our thanks to Mr. J. A. Reeves, the talented, worthy and sterling democratic Representative from Cherokee County, for various valuable public documents.

No Resurrection—Death of a Free Government—An Eloquent Extract.

The following beautiful extract is from a speech delivered by Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana.

It is a melancholy spectacle to behold a free government die. The world, it is true, is filled with evidences of decay. All nature speaks the voice of dissolution, and the highway of history and of life is strewn with the wrecks which Time, the great despoiler, has made. But the hopes of the future, bright visions of reviving glory, are nowhere denied to the heart of man, save as he gazes on the downfall of legal liberty. He listens mournfully to the autumn winds, as they sigh through dismantled forests, but he knows that their breath will be soft and vernal in the spring, and that the dead flowers and withered foliage will blossom and bloom again. He sees the sky overcast with the angry frown of the tempest, but he knows that the sun will reappear, and the embazonary of God cannot perish. Man, himself, this strange connecting link between dust and Deity, totters wearily, wearily on ward, under the weight of years and pain, towards the tomb, but how briefly his life lingers around the dismal spot.

It is filled with tears and grief, and the willow and cypress gather around it with their loving but mournful embrace. And is this all? Not so! If a man die shall he not live again? Beyond the grave in the Eden Hope provides an elysium of the soul where the mortal assumes immortality, and life becomes an endless splendor. But where, sir, in all the dreary legions of the past filled with convulsions, wars and crimes, can you point your finger to the tomb of a free commonwealth on which the angels of resurrection have ever descended, or from whose sepulchre the stone of despotism has been rolled away? Where, in what age, and in what clime have the veins of constitutional freedom renewed their youth and regained their lost estate? By whose strong grip has the dead corpse of the Republic once fallen, ever been raised? The merciful Maker who walked upon the waters and bade the winds be still, left no ordained apostle with power to wrench apart the jaws of national death, and release the victim of despotism. The wail of the heart-broken over the dead is not so sad to me as the realization of this fact. But all history, with a loud unbroken voice, proclaims it; and the evidence of what the past has been is conclusive.

Whatever in the domain of human conduct a people once possessed of liberty, have surrendered those great gifts of God at the command of the usurper, they have never afterward proven themselves worthy to regain their forfeited treasure.

From Washington.

Cor. Baltimore Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

For the first time in the history of this Government, since the existence of the District of Columbia, it has been passed by without notice in the annual message of the President. The message of President Grant, submitted to Congress yesterday, did not even recognize the existence of the seat of the National Government. The House in appropriating to the various committees, by way of a joke, I presume, allotted to the Committee on the District of Columbia all of that portion of the District of Columbia! The gentlemen composing this committee are to be congratulated on the lightness of the task before them.

Mr. Sherrod, member elect from Alabama, who was objected to yesterday, was sworn in to day. His colleague, Mr. Dox, is still left "out in the cold."

The Capital movers have inaugurated their campaign. The reporter's gallery of the House was plentifully supplied this morning with copies of two pamphlets, written by a Mr. L. U. Reavis, and advocating the "removal of the National Capitol from Washington city to the Mississippi Valley." St. Louis being the site selected. One pamphlet contains no less than 170 pages, a number of maps, and fairly bristles with statistics. It exhausts "the geographical argument," "the commercial argument," and does not wind up with "the conclusive argument," but adds "special and local considerations," and "what time." It is proposed to remove the present buildings piecemeal and remove them to St. Louis; and it is estimated that they can be taken down, moved, and newly erected in five years, at a cost of $100,000,000. I shall not pretend to go into details as to the advantages to be derived from this movement, as I have no faith in its success. Mr. Reavis is very confident, however, and says that "the change will be made within five years from January 1, 1869."

He says, further: "Before two years from January 1, 1869, Congress will authorize, by its own act, the removal of the seat of Government from its present place, and soon will follow the President, national archbishops and the Legislature of the Republic." We shall see! Perhaps Mr. Reavis is a prophet. Who knows? The Virginia delegation are still hopeful, and confident of gaining their seats. It is believed that the referees of the matter yesterday to the Election Committee will not result in hindering the prompt admission of Virginia into the Union.

Financial men here pronounce the plan recommended by the President for the resumption of specie payment not only absurd but impracticable. They think his recommendation to Congress to "put an immediate stop to fluctuation in the value of currency," is imposing on that body a task which it is as little likely to perform as if it were commanded to turn the walls of the capitol building into solid gold. Secretary Boutwell's refusal to sell on two occasions, when the price did not reach a certain figure, is now regarded as having fore-shadowed the financial policy indicated in the message. It is said the next monthly statement will show a larger decrease of the public debt than any previous statement. The statement will be furnished in English, French and German.

DIED.—In this county on 23d September last, L. J. HANNAH, son of J. W. and Mary Hannah, aged nine years six months and four days.

He was a promising boy, but it pleased God in his providence to take him to himself. We bow submissively to his will. From adverse blasts and lowering storms His favored soul he bore; And with young, bright angel forms, He lives to die no more.

The Constitutional Convention in session has carried by a large majority.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.
Mr. C. C. Crow, Agent, was here on Tuesday last, making arrangements to extend the telegraph line to the public square in Jacksonville. He has let out a contract for poles, and says we shall have an office by the 1st January, 1870.

We learn with pleasure, by the following from the Louisville Courier, the high estimation in which Capt. Burke, who is from our town, is held in the medical University in that city.

University Valedictorian.

Last evening, the graduating class of the Medical Department of the University of Louisville held a meeting at the college building to elect a valedictorian. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, D. P. McGuire, and on motion of Mr. Cochran, it was decided that the candidate who received the majority of votes should be declared duly elected, and that the candidate receiving the least number of votes at each successive ballot be dropped until a majority vote was reached. Messrs. McKee, Watham, Smith and Burke were then nominated, when Mr. Chastain being selected as judge by Mr. Burke. Mr. Berry by Mr. McKee, Mr. Cochran by Mr. Watham, and Mr. Kelly by Mr. Smith, three ballots were had. On the first ballot, Mr. McKee received 7 votes, Mr. Watham 12 votes, Mr. Smith 20 votes and Mr. Burke 85 votes. On the second ballot, Mr. Watham received 17 votes, Mr. Smith 20 votes and Mr. Burke 55 votes. On the third ballot, Mr. Smith received 22 votes, and Mr. Burke 48 votes, when the latter gentleman was declared elected by a majority of 26 votes. Mr. M. Burke acknowledged the high compliment paid him by his fellow-students in a very appropriate speech, when the meeting adjourned.—Louisville Courier.

Stone and Murray's Circus.

This celebrated metropolitan establishment is announced to exhibit in Jacksonville Monday January 3rd, and from its well-known character will be certain to be greeted with crowded audiences both afternoon and night. That the many friends of this Circus in our city, may know that Stone and Murray still maintain the reputation of their Circus for superiority, we copy the following from the Savannah News of November 10th:

"STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS. Despite the bad weather, this Circus drew another immense crowd last night. The performances were really fine, as upon the opening occasion, and all present were more than satisfied. Mlle. Emilie Henrietta Cook gave some excellent specimens of daring and graceful riding, and was long and loudly applauded, as were also the astonishing feats of Mr. John Henry Cooke, who is well deserving of the title given him upon the bills, the Champion Rider of the Universe. The Snow Brothers, in their beautiful groupings, captured every auditor, and elicited the most hearty plaudits we ever heard in Savannah. Den. Stone kept every one in good humor by his original comicities. The acrobatic feats of Murray and Hutchinson, the equestrian exercises of Mr. William Franklin, and Le Jeune Berte, were also striking features of the rare treat served up by the enterprising management, who have succeeded in bringing together a company of artists surpassing all we have ever witnessed in the Southern country, and we can still call to mind the many good things we have seen and heard in the circus of former days."

Washington, Dec. 20.—The Tennessee Constitutional Convention carried by a large majority.

SENATE—Discussing the Custom-house bill.

HOUSE—Regular call States. The Georgia bill is on the Speaker's table. An attempt will be made to pass it without reference to the Committee. The re-construction Committee heard Bullock and Tift on Georgia. The discussion was mostly personal and somewhat bitter.

Washington, December 20.—Senate.—Transworth moved to suspend the rules and pass a resolution that Virginia is entitled to representation. The House refused to suspend the rules by a vote of 63 to 66.

The Speaker decides that the Georgia bill is open to amendments, and that a motion to postpone will be entertained. The President refused to send the documents called for by the Judiciary Committee.

The Tennessee delegation, except Senator Fowler and Representative Hawkins, engaged in preparing a preparing a protest against the legality of the Tennessee election, and praying Congress to set aside.

A private despatch from Paris says that the expatriation of Jews from Russia has commenced.

It is stated on good authority that the Alabama claims negotiations will be reopened in Washington.

It is stated that Gen. Canby has written a letter adverse to Virginia's admission without stringent restrictions. New Orleans, Dec. 20.—A Houston telegram reports returns from 119 counties. Davis, majority 630. Only seven counties to hear from. The Legislature stands: Senate, thirteen republicans; fourteen conservatives, and three to hear from. House thirty-six republicans; forty-five conservatives, and nine to hear from.

General Reynolds has ordered an election in Navaro and Milam counties, which did not vote at the general election.

Bill Arr Again.

From the Rome Daily.

Mr. Editor.—Somebody aint a foolin me and perhaps I ought to write about it, but I dont want the Grand Army letter you published over my name. I think I could have writ as good a letter as that, perhaps, tho' it might have strained me, but we aint notice such things now.—We whipped them fellers so often during the late war that we dont feel like wastin stationery on 'em now. I look upon the concern as a "Grand Condon Society" and was glad to see that the fellers who got the most whippin made the most noise in the Reunion. I think that's right, I like to see 'em sympathizin together under a common misfortune. I didnt think however there was much decent propriety in holding their meetin in public, and specially in Louisville. I should have recommended the Mammoth Cave or Cape Fear, or some other quiet Retreat. But every man to his notion.—We've got no grand army down here to reunion and are peaceably attendin to business, but I'll bet two dollars that Louisville concern wont knock another chip off of our hat. With this pinter remark I dismiss the subject. There's bigger things attractin our attention.

If I had time, Mr. Editor, I would make a few remarks to Mr. Grant about his Executive impudence. Taint the first time since we whipped 'em, that these fellers have been tryin to make our niggers believe they dont belong to us.—They've got some few in the Alabama Legislature of that opinion now, and they are playing the Devil generally. Now if Mr. Grant can't write a better message than that part about Gorgy, he'd better abdicate. I read it to Tip, and he said, "Why, Mass Bill, shurely the man's a fool!" What's Gen. Grant got to do with Gorgy? I despise to see a man do with Gorgy his segar into other people's business. I reckon old Boutwell or some other old cuss is to blame for it. Says he, "General, them fellers down there in that Gorgy cage are gettin along too easy. I think you had better stir 'em up a little—give 'em a few punches under the ribs just to hear 'em growl." All right old fel, we'll growl just for your amusement now, but hereafter—at some future time—D. V.—and the weather permitting—and the boys a little bigger—and a few more foundry built—we'll talk this matter over. Hurrah for Bob Lee! I'd like to have seen him and Joe Johnston walk into that Reunion with their regimentals on—Oh my country! some of them fellers would have been running till they died. I think I see Pope now in about two miles of Alaska.

Stone and Murray's Circus.

But I've no time to enlarge, Mr. Editor, for I only wish to say to you about that letter, you will please reply, or put some other name to it, I dont want to rob the author of his laurels, nor to get notorious about what we done, or what I didn't do. This kind of thievery has become quite common and there's no law again it that I know of. Mr. Shakespeare said it was high larceny, and that stealin one's purse was not to be compared to it, but as the lawyers say, it seems to be a case of "damnum obsequio injurious." I can therefore only entreat certain gentlemen (?) to tote their own skulls.

BILL ARR.
P. S.—I take this opportunity to notify the Confederate Public, that we are now organizing a Grand Confederate Association to make arrangements for the future payment of Pensions to our Army Widows and disabled Soldiers. That concern popularly known as the United States, has got to pay 'em. Send in your names.—Hurrah for Bob Lee!! B. A.

"CURSES LIKE CHICKENS COME HOME TO ROOST."—Judg Corbin in 1868 recommended to a member of the present Legislature to get rid of the then Judge of the Montgomery city court, a Democrat, by passing an act abolishing the court, and then to re-establish it again and put in a Republican. It so happened, however, that Corbin by mistake made the proposition to a Democratic member, (Dr. Worthy) who at once corrected the mistake, and C. made apologies. The people of Selma have adopted Corbin's own plan in order to get rid of him as Judge of the city court of Selma. A bill has been passed to abolish his court. Exit Corbin, singing "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

Mother said a sharp little boy, is it wicked to say dam?
Certainly, my son—that would be swearing.
But is it wicked to say coffer dam?
Oh no, my son—that is the name of an inanimate object, like house or table.

Well mother, responded the young hopeful, the old cow has got a potato in her throat, and if she don't look out she'll coffer her dam head off.
